Madrid, Barcelona 25 March 2021 - Roca Junyent consolidates its positions in Global, Europe and Fintech Legal editions of Chambers and Partners directory. In total, 7 of its practice areas and sectors of specialisation along with 11 of its professionals are highlighted in the guide.

In its European edition the English directory has highlighted Corporate/Commercial (Barcelona), Dispute Resolution (Barcelona), Employment (Barcelona and Spain), Restructuring/Insolvency (Barcelona and Spain), Intellectual Property (Spain) and Tax (Spain) areas.

As for the professionals, Miquel Roca Junyent, Joan Roca Sagarra, Albert Rodriguez, Alex Santacana, Blanca Usón, Raúl Salas, Roberto Vallina, Blanca Cortés, and, for the first year, Joan Antoni Borràs and Marlen Estévez, partners in the firm's Restructuring and Litigation and Arbitration departments.

In relation to the Global edition of the directory, for the 2020 financial year, the Intellectual Property (Spain) department enters the directory with "a strong reputation for working with architects, musicians and creators of audiovisual Works" as well as "a team that handles trademark registrations, technology transfer mandates and actions for infringement of image rights or trademarks in foreign jurisdictions".

Among the professionals highlighted in the Global edition are Joan Roca (Corporate/M&A), Blanca Cortés (Intellectual Property) and, for the first year, Marlen Estévez (Dispute Resolution).

Finally, in the Chambers and Partners Fintech guide, Roca Junyent strengthens its position in the directory by maintaining its position both in the area that stands out for its "experience serving the banking and financial sector" "Roca Junyent brings together the multidisciplinary competence of its lawyers to serve its Fintech clients at a high level" and with its leading professional, Xavier Foz, partner of the Banking and Finance department and with extensive experience in the Fintech field.
