RocaJunyent and its professionals distinguished in the Chambers and Partners Global Guide

The Banking & Finance and Intellectual Property areas and 5 lawyers of the law firm have been recognised by the international guide

Madrid, 22 February 2023. RocaJunyent continues for yet another year to improve its position in the Global edition of the international directory Chambers and Partners. In total, 5 of its professionals and 2 of its practice areas are recognised in the guide.

Chambers and Partners produces its annual Global Guide, which recognises the leading departments and practitioners in the international and cross-border practice.

The professionals highlighted this year by the Chambers Global Guide are Joan Roca (Corporate/M&A), Blanca Cortés (Intellectual Property: Copyrights), Javier Vázquez (Intellectual Property: Patents & Trade Marks), José Luis Pita da Veiga (Banking & Finance) and Marlen Estévez (Dispute Resolution).

In this edition, Blanca Cortés improves its ranking and is positioned in Band 2 of the Intellectual Property: Copyrights ranking. According to the directory, it improves “thanks to strong market support”.

In addition, this year the English directory also highlights the areas of Banking & Finance and Intellectual Property.

In Banking & Finance, Chambers interviewees praise that they “anticipate their needs and expectations well and know the ins and outs of providing legal services to clients in different jurisdictions”.

On Intellectual Property, the directory notes that it “has copyright capabilities and boasts a strong reputation for work on behalf of architects, musicians and creators of audiovisual work”, as well as that it “handles trade mark registrations, technology transfer mandates and trade mark or image rights infringement actions filed in foreign jurisdictions”.
