

RocaJunyent strengthens its Tax Law team with the incorporation of Imma Ferrés in Girona

RocaJunyent's Tax Law Department is one of the largest in the firm; it has 9 partners and 32 lawyers and economists spread between the offices in Barcelona, Girona and Madrid.

The Girona office, headed by Josep Pujolràs, has 25 years of experience advising the region's business community.

Barcelona, 22 February 2024. RocaJunyent has hired Imma Ferrés Soler as a new partner in the Tax team in Girona. The signing is part of the office's consolidation strategy, and comes a month after the incorporation of Albert Martínez Rodríguez as a partner in Labour Law. Led by partner Josep Pujolràs, RocaJunyent's Girona office has 25 years of experience advising the province's business community.

Imma Ferrés is a tax lawyer with more than 20 years of experience in the field of legal advice on tax and accounting matters. The new partner is an expert in tax planning, review and analysis of corporate operations, tax, accounting and commercial advice on business restructuring operations, tax inspections and preparation of reports and appeals. With extensive knowledge of the regulations underpinning the tax system, the lawyer has specialised in complex tax negotiations and the resolution of tax litigation. The new partner joins RocaJunyent from Agencia Mata 2040, where she was head of the Tax Department.

With her incorporation, RocaJunyent's Tax Law team has grown to 9 partners and 32 lawyers and economists, distributed between the offices in Girona, Barcelona and Madrid. The firm's Tax department was also reinforced in 2023 with two promotions to partner: Pilar Vacas in the Madrid office and Carles Calafell in Barcelona.

RocaJunyent's Girona office has three partners and three senior professionals, specialists who offer advice in the main disciplines of business law, mainly company law, restructuring, tax, insolvency and labour law.
